To: His Excellency, The Governor of North Carolina and Commander-in-Chief, North Carolina National Guard, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Sir:—Submitted herein is report of the operations of the Adjutant General's Department and matters pertaining to the National Guard for the biennium January 1, 1936—December 31, 1937:

THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT

The Department has functioned very well and has carried on the activities of the National Guard of the State throughout the biennium on the appropriation of $81,180 and $90,795, respectively. It is true that there are some activities in connection with the efficiency of the National Guard which should be speeded up but which would require a slight increase in our present appropriation. The appropriation as made by the General Assembly is expended in a careful manner and every effort is made to conserve the State's money. It is proper that sufficient travel funds be authorized commanders of Regiments and Battalions that they might make, each, two trips per year to units of their command. Much of the work of the Regimental Commanders is handled directly by this office, which is not entirely correct but which is the duty and responsibility of such Regimental Commanders; yet, this is necessary because of the lack of funds to enable these Commanders to visit and keep in close touch with the needs of their organizations and especially the type of training on the part of the unit commanders.

ORGANIZATION AND STRENGTH OF THE NATIONAL GUARD

The National Guard of the United States is organized along the same lines of the Regular Army. The entire United States is divided into nine Corps Areas within each of which is supposedly an Army Corps, which Corps is commanded by a Regular Army officer who commands the Corps Area. Each of these Corps Areas embodies three or more States. North Carolina with South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Tennessee comprises the Fourth Corps Area with Headquarters at Atlanta, Georgia. Within this Corps Area there are two National Guard Divisions and one Regular Army Division, plus certain other troops known as Corps and Army troops. The organizations are allotted by the War Department to the respective States and authority of the War Department is always secured for the organization of any units. New organizations of the National Guard have been organized and Federally recognized as follows: Company A, 105th Medical Regiment, station Wilmington, N. C., December 15, 1936; Company A, 105th Quartermaster Regiment, station Winston-Salem, N. C., June 28, 1937; Headquarters First Battalion, 105th Quartermaster Regiment, headquarters Henderson, N. C., August 13, 1937.

The strength of the North Carolina National Guard as of December 31, 1937 is 267 officers, 5 warrant officers and 3137 enlisted men—a total of 3409. The total strength allotted to North Carolina by the War Department is 280 officers, 5 warrant officers and 3303 enlisted men.—Total 3588.

Since the general textile strike in September 1934 the State has been free of any disturbances and serious infraction of the laws of the State, due to which there has been no cause for the Governor to place any part of the National Guard on special duty within the State, except that the National Guard has been called upon to furnish assistance in a humanitarian service on two or three different occasions.

SPECIAL DUTY

Batteries C and D and the Medical Department Detachment of the 252d Coast Artillery, station Greensboro, N. C., were ordered on duty from April 2-4, 1936, to assist the civil authorities in the protection of property, necessitated by a tornado which swept through Greensboro.

One officer and one enlisted man of the 109th Cavalry with station at Asheville were ordered to duty at Newport, Tennessee, February 3-March 4, 1937, to command and ration the refugee camp at that place during the serious flood which swept through several States of the Central West at that time.

Battery E, 252d Coast Artillery, station High Point, was ordered on duty August 30, 1937, to assist in rescue work in which some men were covered by earth due to a land slide in the construction of a tunnel at High Point.

The National Guard, due to its disciplinary and systematic training is an asset to the State not alone in the maintenance of law and order in the cases of mob violences, but, as is stated herein, for use of the public in cases of conflagration, floods or other such serious instances to be faced by the citizenship, when deemed proper and advisable by the Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

NATIONAL MATCHES CAMP PERRY, OHIO

The War Department provides the opportunity and Federal funds for each State to send a National Guard rifle team to the National matches held annually at Camp Perry, Ohio. It may be realized that marksmanship is a very important training of the soldier and North Carolina has been represented by a team in the matches each year.

There has been a considerable interest displayed in the past few years on the part of civilians who have organized in different sections of the State rifle clubs. Mr. H. M. Rooney of Linville, North Carolina, who has been particularly interested, has for the last two or three years organized a civilian rifle team which has attended the National Matches, and through his efforts the General Assembly of 1937 enacted into law House Bill No. 1111, creating a civilian officer for the purpose of working up a greater interest in marksmanship on the part of civilians, and provided an annual appropriation of $200.00 to defray the actual expenses of this work, under regulations to be set-up by the Adjutant General. This money has been well spent in the interest of marksmanship.

The Chief of the National Guard Bureau provides the opportunity annually for indoor rifle matches to be conducted at home stations of the units of the Guard, and North Carolina has always had a number of units to participate in these matches, for which the Chief, National Guard Bureau offers certain medals. Teams are selected from each unit and from these teams are selected a Regimental team which competes in the final matches against regimental teams of other States. In the company teams in the last few years the following have been the winners:

1933—Company C, 120th Infantry, Henderson.

1934—Company B, 120th Infantry, Warrenton.

1935—Company C, 120th Infantry, Henderson.

1936—Company B, 120th Infantry, Warrenton.

1937—Company B, 120th Infantry, Warrenton.

SERVICE SCHOOLS

North Carolina has had the opportunity to send a number of officers and non-commissioned officers to the United States Army Service Schools during the past two years. These schools help to perfect an officer or non-commissioned officer in his military training and duties. The following attended schools in 1936-37:

1936—Capt. Thomas S. Kittrell, Q.M.C.—Tactical course at QMC School, Philadelphia, Penn., January 13th to March 27, 1936.

Capt. George A. Ferguson, Hq. Co., 60th Brigade—Company Officers course, Fort Benning, Georgia, February 21st to May 23, 1936, but was taken sick and relieved from duty.

Capt. Joseph B. Mullineaux, Btry.D., 113th F.A.—Field Artillery School, Fort Sill, Oklahoma, September 12th to December 12, 1936.

Capt. Lee J. Best, Hq.Btry., 113th F.A.—Field Artillery School, Fort Sill, Oklahoma, September 12th to December 12, 1936.

2nd Lt. Raymond A. Heath, Service Battery, 252d C.A.—QM Motor Transport School, Holabird QM Depot, Baltimore, Maryland, September 12 to November 7, 1936.

Staff Sgt. Roy E. Thompson, Hq.Btry. & C.T. 3rd Bn., 113th Field Artillery—Communications course, F.A. School, Fort Sill, Oklahoma, February 22nd to June 27, 1936.

1937—1st Lt. John D. Hines, Co. G, 120th Infantry—Company Officers Course, Fort Benning, Georgia, March 1st to May 29, 1937.

Maj. A. L. Fletcher, State Staff—Selective Service School, Washington, D. C., April 1st to April 25, 1937.

1st Lt. Carl O. Shytte, 3rd Squadron, 109th Cavalry—QM Motor Transport School, Holabird QM Depot, Baltimore, Md., September 11th to November 6, 1937.

1st Lt. Wilbur R. Carleton, Troop K, 109th Cavalry—Chemical Warfare School, Edgewood Arsenal, Maryland, October 9 to November 20, 1937.

Sgt. Oscar R. Mills, Machine Gun Troop, 109th Cavalry—NG & NCO Course, Cavalry School, Fort Riley, Kansas, August 30th to November 30, 1937.

UNITED STATES MILITARY ACADEMY

The annual competitive examination, open to all enlisted men of the National Guard, is held at the office of the Adjutant General, and based upon which the Governor has the opportunity to recommend an enlisted man of the National Guard to take the final competitive and entrance examination for the U. S. Military Academy at West Point. Provided in the Governor's recommendation in November 1936 were Private John G. Tyndall, Jr.,

Service Company, 120th Infantry, Raleigh, N. C., and Private James I. Cox, Howitzer Company, 120th Infantry, Gastonia, N. C. The opportunity for only one recommendation was originally made but due to the standing of Private Cox in the competitive examination, the Adjutant General was successful in securing from the War Department the opportunity for a second recommendation.

In the competitive examination held in November, 1937, there was no competitor who made an average grade that would justify the Governor's recommendation; hence, no recommendation was made to the War Department.

CAMPS, ARMORY DRILLS AND INSPECTIONS

Throughout the two years embodied in this report we found a steady development toward the efficiency of all units of the National Guard, and though there are some weak spots the National Guard of North Carolina, as a whole, is believed to be ready for combat service in case of any National emergency which may arise, within a period of thirty days. The training at the home station has been generally progressive and satisfactory and the advanced training in camps of instruction during the summer months has been such as to bring the organizations of the Guard up to a very good standard of efficiency. The reports of Regular Army officers on the annual inspection of all units of the Guard have been satisfactory. These inspections embody a state of training, records, personnel and the necessary property, as well as conditions of Federal property to perfect the organization for combat conditions.

ARMORIES

With funds provided through Works Progress Administration and Public Works Administration, we have within the State twenty-two new armories at an average cost of about $45,000.00. The local communities provided the site for the building and became the sponsor, providing a sponsor's contribution which ranged in different localities from approximately $8000.00 to $12,000.00, toward the construction of the building. These armories are substantial, adequate for training and for storage and protection of Federal property. The following communities have assisted in making these new armories possible:

New Bern	Greenville	Gastonia	Salisbury
Edenton	Wilson	Reidsville	High Point
Wilmington	Raeford	Henderson	Durham

Albemarle	Washington	Waynesville	Sanford
Concord	Morganton	Canton
Raleigh	Madison	Whiteville

THE INAUGURATION OF THE HONORABLE CLYDE R. HOEY AS GOVERNOR

The Honorable Clyde R. Hoey was inaugurated as Governor of North Carolina January 7, 1937, and, as has been customary, the atmosphere of the inauguration of the Governor was rather formal. The State College Cadet Corps and Band and a number of units of the National Guard paraded as a part of the ceremonies. Colonel Graham K. Hobbs was placed in command of all troops taking part in these ceremonies.

In addition to the Cadet Corps of State College, the Charlotte High School Band and the Lenoir High School Band made the trip to Raleigh and participated, and the following National Guard units took part in the ceremonies:

Infantry:

Hq. Co., 60th Brigade	Leaksville
Company B, 120th Infantry	Warrenton
Hq. Co., 1st Battalion, 120th Infantry	Oxford
Company M, 120th Infantry	Wilson
Hq. Company, 120th Infantry	Reidsville
Service Company, 120th Infantry	Raleigh

Field Artillery:

Hq. Btry. & CT., 1st Bn., 113th Field Artillery	Youngsville
Battery B, 113th Field Artillery	Louisburg
Hq. Btry. & CT., 2nd Bn., 113th Field Artillery	Smithfield
Battery D, 113th Field Artillery	New Bern
Hq. Btry., 113th Field Artillery	Dunn
Battery C, 113th Field Artillery	Washington
Battery A, 113th Field Artillery	Greenville

Coast Artillery:

Hq. Btry. & CT., 1st Bn., 252d Coast Artillery	Raeford
Battery F, 252d Coast Artillery	Raeford

The joint Inaugural Committee of the Senate and House with a local committee appointed by the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce designated the Adjutant General to provide the military feature and to take charge of the arrangements for the luncheon at the Governor's Mansion for the Governor, his family, friends and officials and for the Inaugural reception that evening. The Chamber of Commerce Committee had in charge the securing and decorating, and other expenses incident to the auditorium, at which the ceremonies were held. The total cost of the Inauguration amounted to $964.64. Of this amount $667.23 was expended directly by the Adjutant General and which amount included luncheon for the visiting organizations taking part in the ceremonies. This luncheon was provided by the Service Company, 120th Infantry, station Raleigh, N. C., at their armory, with approximately a thousand men provided for at a total cost of $236.69.

CONCLUSION

Though there is always room for improvement, it can be said that the organizations of the North Carolina National Guard have been brought up to a high state of efficiency. The Regular Army Officers and Sergeants on duty as Instructors have been constant and untiring, energetic and persistent, in their efforts to assist in this training and have the commendation of the Adjutant General for these services. The entire office force of the Adjutant General's Department has worked diligently and faithfully in the performance of all duties.

REPORT OF SPECIAL DUTY

1 May, 1936.

Subject: Special Duty Performed under Special Orders No. 111 and No. 116 AGO-Duty performed April 2, 3, and 4, 1936.

To: THE ADJUTANT GENERAL, Raleigh, North Carolina.

In connection with special duty during the tornado emergency in Greensboro, North Carolina, on April 2, 3 and 4, 1936, the following report is submitted. This duty was performed under verbal orders by telephone and special order No. 111 dated April 2, 1936 and special order No. 116, dated April 4, 1936.

GENERAL STATEMENT OF ACTIVITIES.

On April 2, 1936 at about 7:15 P. M. a tornado struck the City of Greensboro and devastated an area about two miles long and about two blocks wide, in which catastrophe thirteen lives were lost, one hundred and fifty-five people injured and approximately five hundred families rendered homeless, with a total result in property damage of about two million dollars.

At the request of the Mayor of Greensboro and the Chief of Police, this officer called the Adjutant General's Department by telephone and was authorized to assemble the entire 2nd Battalion, 252d C.A., plus the Medical Detachment of the 252 C.A. These units were assembled as quickly as possible, but due to the fact that the storm had badly wrecked telephones and had made it necessary to cut off all lights in town, thereby eliminating the radio broadcasting station, complete mobilization was not attained until the next morning, although a large percentage of the troops were located and put on duty.

It is difficult to define special duties during an emergency of this kind, but at one time or another our personnel was engaged in directing traffic, using city equipment for extinguishing fire, and generally patrolling the devastated area to prevent looting. There are, of course, many other duties in a situation of this kind; such as searching parties to rescue those injured or killed, and cooperation with other agencies for the protection of life and property.

After a survey of the devastated area by the Commanding Officer, the district was divided into three portions and one unit was made responsible for each of these divisions, and all orders were cleared through the Battalion Headquarters at Five Points. The medical unit was used at the hospitals, and in the various areas to give medical assistance, and later to direct traffic.

MILITARY PERSONNEL.

The military personnel on duty consisted of the following:

Major Ralph L. Lewis, 252 CA (TD), Comdg.

Staff Officers

1st Lieutenant John E. Ford

1st Lieutenant Wm. Lybrook

Hq. Btry. and CTn. 2d Bn. 252 C.A.

Capt. E. K. Patterson, Comdg.

Total on duty 3 officers and 24 enlisted men.

Btry. C 252 CA

Captain O. I. Wrenn, Comdg.

Total on duty 4 officers and 49 enlisted men.

Btry. D 252 CA

Captain E. L. Faulconer, Comdg.

Total on duty 3 officers and 57 enlisted men.

Medical Detachment, 252 CA

Captain Norman A. Fox, Comdg.

Total on duty one officer and 20 men.

Total on Duty—14 Officers and 150 enlisted men.

MESSING OF TROOPS.

Due to the comparatively short duration of duty it was considered unwise to set up our own mess, and the troops were consequently fed at a local cafe for a total cost of $106.50. Many of our men preferred eating at home and where their homes were nearby this was permitted.

COMMENDATIONS.

Many letters have been received from various sources commending our troops on their quick organization and assumption of duties after the disaster, as well as their very excellent performance of duty in such a time of need. Many of our officers and men went for twenty-four hours or more without sleep due to the emergency, and as positive evidence of the effectiveness of the patrols there was practically no stealing or looting reported. Typical examples of letters received and which are in our files are attached hereto:

Mayor and City Council, City of Greensboro.

Mr. Andrew Joyner, Jr., City Manager.

L. Richardson Memorial Hospital.

J. D. Wilkins, Chairman, American Red Cross.

FINAL.

A duty of this kind which deals directly with an excited public and for which military training has no particular purpose is a difficult one to perform and those in charge must rely greatly on the common sense and ability of the enlisted men, and more particularly of the non-commissioned officers, since the area involved is so large that it is impossible to at all times have control of the area from a central point. However, there is no question in the mind of this officer but that the presence of the troops prevented a great deal of looting and that their skill in assisting with the control of traffic was most valuable. The new automotive equipment recently assigned these units proved almost indispensable, and all in all the National Guard units on duty proved convincingly the value of peace time protection in emergency.

RALPH L. LEWIS,
Major, CA (TD), Commanding.

AMERICAN RED CROSS

Newport, Tenn., March 4, 1937

Hon. J. Van B. Metts
Adjutant General
State of North Carolina
Raleigh, North Carolina
My dear Sir:

On behalf the Cocke County Chapter of the American Red Cross, we wish to express our gratitude to you for having chosen Lieutenant Carl O. Shytle and Corporal John E. Cutshall and sent them to us to aid us in our refugee work.

During the latter part of January and the first part of February when we were working day and night in order to set up our camp, we were astounded to learn that all Tennessee army men were already on flood duty. If North Carolina had not come to our rescue, I do not know what we would have done because it is due largely to the managerial ability of Lieutenant Shytle that we attribute the success of our refugee camp. He and his assistant, Corporal Cutshall, are gentlemen of the highest type and their influence on the refugees was indeed wholesome.

By his gentle and convincing manner of giving instructions, the lieutenant won the love and respect of everyone in camp on the first day he gave the refugees one of his "table talks". At no time did we have any friction of any kind and the refugees always felt free to take their troubles to the lieutenant and corporal for solution. These two men were truly "brothers" to these refugees, and from the beginning of the camp to the end, their interest in these colored people never waned. And too, by wise management of Lieutenant Shytle, our camp was run in a very economical manner,—it took less money than we at first thought.

It was certainly a pleasure for us as a Red Cross Chapter to work with such fine men and we feel that if we had had the pick of men in the United States, we could not have done better. Their duties here terminate today and they are leaving Newport for Asheville at 11:20 a.m.

Again we thank you for the services of these splendid men and we trust that Tennessee may someday, even in a small way, reciprocate and thus strengthen the friendship of North Carolina and Tennessee as you have so recently done for us.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) I. S. NEASE, Chairman.

(Signed) MARY AULT NEASE (MRS. L. S.)
Executive Secretary.

Subject: Report of Special Duty Performed by Battery "E"—252d CA (TD) at High Point, N. C.

To: THE ADJUTANT GENERAL, Raleigh, North Carolina.

1. A little after four o'clock on the afternoon of Monday, August 30, 1937, at High Point, N. C. an accident occurred in connection with work being done relative to the lowering of the Southern Railroad tracks which run through the center of the city.

The accident consisted in the roof of a tunnel located on Willowbrook Street, caving in, entombing three negro laborers. This tunnel had been dug out to a length of about 150 feet, and at the point of cave in, was approximately 32 feet below the surface of the street.

2. Rescue work began immediately, but due to the tedious method of the removal of dirt, together with the large amount of water collected within the tunnel, the progress to the entombed men was very slow. The frequent occurrence of new slides necessitated great precaution to protect the rescue workers in the hazardous undertaking.

3. The first of the entombed men was brought to the surface at about 6:30 P. M. Artificial respiration was administered for almost an hour before the man was pronounced dead. By this time the crowd watching the rescue work had grown so large that the combined efforts of the Police and Fire Departments were not capable of holding the watchers back far enough to permit the work to progress as quickly as possible. The crowd was not unruly, but their curiosity was greater than their sense of judgment.

4. At 7:15 P. M., William G. Friddle, Chief of Police of the City of High Point, sent a Police Sergeant to the Armory with the request that if it was possible to do so, he would like to have the assistance of the National Guard to help hold the crowd away from the workers. It was also known at this time that one of the entombed men was alive, and they realized that unless the crowd could be held away from the workers, he might die before he could be brought out.

The Chief of Police's request was immediately relayed to the Adjutant General by telephone by the writer. As the Governor of North Carolina had to be consulted before an answer to the request could be given, a slight delay resulted.

It being our regular drill night and the exact time of our assembly, it was not necessary to mobilize the troops. The whole Battery was held in readiness awaiting a reply from the Adjutant General.

5. At 7:40 P. M. word was received by telephone from the Adjutant General that the request of Chief Friddle had been granted and to use what men necessary to properly handle the situation.

The writer immediately went to the scene of the disaster, and held a consultation with the Chief of Police and found that the area he wished patrolled consisted of both sidewalks on Willowbrook Street, from High Street to Willowbrook Street, a distance of one city block. It was deemed advisable to use the whole Battery to properly carry out the objective.

The Battery was driven in their own trucks to the scene of the accident, arriving at 7:55 P. M. and immediately took position.

6. The second victim of the accident was brought to the surface at 8:35 P. M. He was alive, and was immediately placed in an ambulance and taken to the hospital. The crowd was orderly, but for a space of about twenty minutes was hard to hold in place.

The last victim of the accident was brought to the surface at 9:25 P. M. and after approximately one hour of artificial respiration, was pronounced dead. During this time the crowd was again hard to hold in check. Except for hysterical actions of some immediate relatives of the victims, no disorders occurred.

7. By 10:30 P. M. after the last victim had been pronounced dead and removed, the crowd quickly dispersed, and the Battery was returned to the Armory. Dismissal of the organization was made at 11 P. M.

8. In summarizing the situation, this organization did not participate in any rescue activities, confining its function to holding the crowd in check. This was done in an effective manner, and to the best of the writer's knowledge, not a single offensive or uncomplimentary remark was made by any person within the crowd. Many complimentary remarks on the service rendered were given by the Police and Fire officials.

Considering the size of the crowd, and the participation in the rescue work by the Police and Fire Department members, as well as their endeavors in trying to keep the crowds back, it is an acknowledged fact that without the assistance rendered by this National Guard Unit, proper order could not have been maintained.

The total expenditures made by this organization consisted of approximately ten gallons of gasoline.

No injuries were suffered by any member of this organization.

Respectfully submitted,

SAMUEL E. HOLT,
Capt. 252d CA (TD) Commanding.

REPORT OF U. S. PROPERTY AND DISBURSING OFFICER

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
OFFICE OF U. S. PROPERTY AND DISBURSING OFFICER
RALEIGH

February 23, 1938

Subject: Annual Report.

To: THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF NORTH CAROLINA, Raleigh, N. C.

1. Report of the United States Property and Disbursing Officer for the period July 1, 1935 to June 30, 1937, is hereby submitted.

ACTIVITIES

The office has operated and functioned in accordance with Federal and State laws during the period covered by this report.

FEDERAL PROPERTY

The state of equipment continues to be excellent and in most cases adequate. There is an urgent need for more funds for clothing and the allowance of $6.00 or $7.00 per annum per man is not sufficient and under this Project (51) at least $10.00 per man should be allowed. The federal government has furnished needed supplies and equipment on requisition and has approved reports of survey covering unserviceable and obsolete equipment. Obsolete motor vehicles have been surveyed and modern up to date vehicles issued in lieu thereof.

At the present time the following motor vehicles are on hand in a serviceable condition:

42	2½ ton trucks	(F.A. & C.A.)
12	7½ ton trucks	(252nd C.A.)
6	1½ ton trucks 4 x 4	(30th Sig. Co.)
7	Ambulances
1	1½ ton truck—dump
68	Station Wagons
55	1½ ton trucks, cargo

191      Total

The two years covered by this report have been the most active in the history of the office and the following is of interest:

Number of requisitions July 1, 1935 to June 30, 1936	693
Number of requisitions July 1, 1936 to June 30, 1937	729

The number of vouchers handled were as follows:

July 1, 1935 to June 30, 1936	1230
July 1, 1936 to June 30, 1937	1342

The work of the office from a financial and property standpoint has greatly increased on account of additional requirements in accounting for property and federal funds. Suspensions have been negligible and the office has an excellent record in this respect as well as for general efficiency.

This efficiency may be attributed to the employees of the office who are painstaking, efficient, conscientious, earnest and faithful in their work.

Absentees without leave of absence or on furlough will be dealt with in accordance with the law. Officers and enlisted men temporarily absent from their home stations at the muster and inspection of their organizations may be attached, for inspection, to any other organization, provided necessary arrangements are made with The Adjutant General by the immediate commanding officers and notice given the Inspector to whom they are to report.

3. a. The inspection of personnel will be made beginning at 8:00 P. M., on the date named herein. Items mentioned on spot inventory will be arranged as requested by the Inspecting Officer.

c. Any unservicable property will be arranged separate from other property, ready for inspection.

5. All records required by National Guard Regulations, or other War Department authority, will be fully written up and accessible. The files of retained enlistment and physical examination papers of enlisted men for the entire personnel at the time of the inspection must be conveniently arranged in case information of this nature is desired.

GENERAL ORDERS

February 2, 1937.

No. 2.

1. Paragraph 2, General Orders No. 1, this office, February 1, 1937, is rescinded and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

2. a (1). Inspecting officers will call upon the commanding officer of the organization to be inspected for copies of the training schedules of the organization and the training programs upon which such training schedules are based.

(2). The commanding officer of the organization to be inspected will be informed that the inspection of the training of his command will include only such subjects as have been covered during the current armory training period to the dates of inspection, as shown by the schedules submitted. He will be prepared to demonstrate the state of training achieved in those subjects and the inspector will base his report upon them and no others.

Such demonstration of the unit as a whole should not exceed the normal drill time and should be planned so as to obviate the necessity for any interruption on the part of the inspector.

b. Organization commanders will be ready to furnish the following information:-

- (1) What steps have been taken to carry out the 1937 Major Effort?
- (2) What steps have officers taken to overcome their deficiencies (1936 Arm. & Field Insp.)?

 ADJUTANT GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT
 RALEIGH

January 11, 1937.

SUBJECT: Resignation as Brigade Commander.
 TO: Officer Personnel 60th Brigade.

1. In June, 1926, upon request of the Governor and the Adjutant General of Tennessee, I was commissioned as Brigadier General of the line and assigned to the command of the 60th Brigade, 30th Division, composed of organizations of the National Guard from North Carolina and Tennessee.

2. Having held this position over a period of ten years, and realizing the amount of work connected with the operation of the Adjutant General's Department, the operations of which I have exercised since 1920, especially within the past few years, and, too, the time which the Brigade demands, now that Brigade Camps are being held, I personally desired to relinquish the Brigade Command, that it may be turned over to a younger and worthy officer.

3. The Brigade mobilization for field training in 1936 was the first held since the organization of the Division and Brigades. It was my happy experience and great pleasure to command the 60th at this time. This period of Field Training, as judged from comments made by the Instructor personnel and officers of the Brigade, proved to be largely successful. Much work was put upon the training program and plans for the camp during the months preceding the camp and the program was successfully carried out by the CPX Team of regular officers, who under the Brigade Commander, directed its operation. The most excellent co-operation of all concerned, and the close affiliation of officers and men and the wonderful esprit, on the part of all, made possible the efficiency of training and a happy period of time for officers and men. Certainly, for the Brigade Commander and his staff, these conditions were a source of great pleasure and spurred them on to bigger and better things. This camp, being the first which the Brigade Commander had had the opportunity, as such, to command, you must know that to realize the splendid officer personnel of the Brigade and the proven efficient training of the organizations at their home stations and the very fine cooperation on the part of all, made him very happy. I can assure you that this spirit was appreciated.

4. The Brigade must "carry on". The start has been made and as the years go on, the organizations should train to greater Field efficiency, realizing now and through the experiences of 1936, this necessity, be prepared to efficiently carry forward the training, under your new Commanding General.

5. My experiences and happy association with the officers of the Brigade will always be looked upon as a most delightful part of my National Guard service and I anticipate the opportunity to visit the Brigade in its future camps, and to renew the pleasant and friendly relationships.

(Signed) J. VAN B. METTS,
